

Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope you all enjoyed the glorious weather over the bank holiday weekend. As it continues to be warm, we would recommend the following:-

- put sun cream on your child before sending them into school
- ensure they have a sun hat, labelled with their name please
- ensure they have a full water bottle.

Year 4 Football Team

Huge thanks to all of you, who came to support our Year 4 football team last week. They all enjoyed the match against Robert Fitzroy at home, led by Aaron N (Hawking class) as team captain.

The whole team worked really well together trying to keep on the ball and set up as many shots as they could. They all congratulated each other when they scored their first goal in the second half but unfortunately the final result was 2:1 to Robert Fitzroy. The team are looking forward to their next match which we hope to win. It was great to see that both sides played in such a sportsmanlike manner. Well done to all.

Huge thanks to coach, Tom Kember, for his excellent support and advice from the side line as well as a great debrief at the end of the match as seen below.

Upcoming matches - All are welcome to come and cheer them on.

Tuesday 22nd May – Years 5 & 6 Girls Football Team home to Park Hill

Tuesday 5th June - Years 5 & 6 Girls Football Match at home to Woodside (Unconfirmed)

Summer Fair Volunteers

Saturday 23rd June 2018

If you are able to volunteer to support on the day, that would be great and Karen Bramson would love to hear from you on k.bramson@arkovalprimary.org.

Hope the rest of your week goes well.

Best wishes

Ali Silke
Principal
